Architecture and Design Library 'Francesco M. Quinterio'

Ascoli Piceno
Colle dell'Annunziata

The 'Francesco M. Quinterio' Architecture and Design Library is a facility supporting the teaching and research activity of the 'Eduardo Vittoria' School of Architecture and Design.

The Library is located at the Unicam campus in Ascoli Piceno, and housed in the former SS. Annunziata Convent.

Library Specialisation

The Library was instituted in the early 1990s, and specialises in the fields of history of architecture, urban and landscape planning, restoration, and design. In 2014, it was named in memory of prof. Francesco Quinterio, an architectural historian and for years a teacher at the School, to whom the Quinterio family donated their private family library. The Quinterio collection consists of around one thousand books.
