Thank you for supporting open access publishing in Italy

We are pleased that you are taking part in the transformative agreement between CRUI Consortium and IOP Publishing, which will provide wider access to your institution's research.

All articles accepted for publication from corresponding authors at Pontificia Facolta Teologica della Sardegna; Universita degli Studi di Camerino will be eligible to be published on an open access basis.

Your authors can now publish open access, and with a CC BY 4.0 licence in almost all IOP Publishing journals. Your agreement covers journals in List A, B, and D here.

Continued access to some of the world's best physical sciences research

Your library users will also continue to benefit from unrestricted access to IOP Publishing's premium journal package of over 90 titles, helping them to advance their research.
